A Nation of Wimps Hara Estroff Marano, 2008 Wake up America We re raising a nation of wimps Hara Marano editor at large and the former editor in chief of Psychology Today has been watching a disturbing trend kids are growing up to be wimps They can t make their own decisions cope with anxiety or handle difficult emotions without going off the deep end Teens lack leadership skills College students engage in deadly binge drinking Graduates can t even negotiate their own salaries without bringing mom or dad in for a consult Why Because hothouse parents raise teacup children brittle and breakable instead of strong and resilient This crisis threatens to destroy the fabric of our society to undermine both our democracy and economy Without future leaders or daring innovators where will we go So what can be done kids would play in the street until their mothers hailed them for supper and unless a child was called into the principal's office parents and teachers met only at organized conferences Nowadays parents are involved in every aspect of their children's lives even going so far as using technology to monitor what their kids eat for lunch at school and accompanying their grown children on job interviews What is going on Hothouse parenting has hit the mainstream with disastrous effects Parents are going to ludicrous lengths to take the lumps and bumps out of life for their children but the net effect of parental hyperconcern and scrutiny is to make kids more fragile When the real world isn't the discomfort free zone kids are accustomed to they break down in myriad ways Why is it that those who want only the best for their kids wind up bringing out the worst in them There is a mental health crisis on college campuses these days with alarming numbers of students engaging in self destructive behaviors like binge drinking and cutting or disconnecting through depression A Nation of Wimps is the first book to connect the dots between overparenting and the social crisis of the young Psychology expert Hara Marano reveals how parental overinvolvement hinders a child's development socially emotionally and neurologically Children become overreactive to stress because they were never free to discover what makes them happy in the first place Through countless hours of painstaking research and interviews Hara Marano focuses on the whys and how of this crisis and then turns to what we can do about it in this thought provoking and groundbreaking book

The End of Love Eva Illouz, 2021-09-15 Western culture has endlessly represented the ways in which love miraculously erupts in people's lives the mythical moment in which one knows someone is destined for us the feverish waiting for a phone call or an email the thrill that runs down our spine at the mere thought of him or her Yet a culture that has so much to say about love is virtually silent on the no less mysterious moments when we avoid falling in love where we fall out of love when the one who kept us awake at night now leaves us indifferent or when we hurry away from those who excited us a few months or even a few hours before In The End of Love Eva Illouz documents the multifarious ways in which relationships end She argues that if modern love was once marked by the freedom to enter sexual and emotional bonds according to one's will and choice contemporary love has now become characterized by practices of non choice the freedom to withdraw from relationships Illouz dubs this process by which relationships fade evaporate dissolve and break down unloving While sociology has classically focused on the formation of social bonds The End of Love makes a powerful case for studying why and how social bonds collapse and dissolve Particularly striking is the role that capitalism plays in practices of non choice and unloving The unmaking of social bonds she argues is connected to contemporary capitalism which is characterized by practices of non commitment and non choice practices that enable the quick withdrawal from a transaction and the quick realignment of prices and the breaking of loyalties Unloving and non choice have in turn a profound impact on society and economics as they explain why people may be having fewer children increasingly living alone and having less sex The End of

Love presents a profound and original analysis of the effects of capitalism and consumer culture on personal relationships and of what the dissolution of personal relationships means for capitalism Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004 Positive Psychology William C. Compton,Edward Hoffman,2019-01-09 Topically organized Positive Psychology The Science of Happiness and Flourishing presents a highly engaging up to date introduction to positive psychology Authors William C Compton and Edward Hoffman invite students to apply practices to their own lives contexts and experiences to ensure understanding The text examines how positive psychology applies to stressors and health within such traditional research areas as developmental clinical personality motivational social and behavioral psychology Furthermore the text offers perspectives on positive emotional states research and theory on positive traits coverage of positive institutions and a look at the future of positive psychology The Third Edition reflects significant growth in field with hundreds of new references and expanded content on topics including mindfulness money and subjective well being and romantic love Readicide Kelly Gallagher,2023-10-10 Read i cide The systematic killing of the love of reading often exacerbated by the inane mind numbing practices found in schools Reading is dying in our schools Educators are familiar with many of the factors that have contributed to the decline poverty second language issues and the ever expanding choices of electronic entertainment In this provocative book Readicide How Schools are Killing Reading and What You Can Do About It author and teacher Kelly Gallagher suggests it is time to recognize a new and significant contributor to the death of reading our schools Readicide Gallagher argues that American schools are actively though unwittingly furthering the decline of reading Specifically he contends that the standard instructional practices used in most schools are killing reading by Valuing standardized testing over the development of lifelong readersMandating breadth over depth in instructionRequiring students to read difficult texts without proper instructional support and insisting students focus on academic textsIgnoring the importance of developing recreational readingLosing sight of authentic instruction in the looming shadow of political pressuresReadicide provides teachers literacy coaches and administrators with specific steps to reverse the downward spiral in reading steps that will help prevent the loss of another generation of readers Unrequited Lisa A. Phillips,2015-01-27 The summer Lisa A Phillips turned thirty she fell in love with someone who didn t return her feelings She became obsessed following him around calling him compulsively and talking about him endlessly One desperate morning after she snuck into his apartment building he picked up a baseball bat to protect himself and threatened to dial 911 Her unrequited love had changed her from a sane conscientious college teacher and radio reporter into someone she barely recognized someone who had taken her yearning much too far In Unrequited Phillips explores the tremendous force of obsessive love in women s lives She argues that it needs to be understood respected and channeled for personal growth yet it also has the potential to go terribly awry Interweaving her own story with frank interviews and in depth research in science psychology cultural history and literature Phillips describes how romantic obsession takes root grows and strongly influences our thoughts and behaviors

Going beyond images of creepy fatally attracted psychos male fantasies of unbridled female desire and the platitudes of self help books Phillips offers compelling insights to help any woman who has experienced unrequited obsessive love and been mystified and troubled by its grip An ingenious hybrid of memoir case study scientific inquiry and intellectual history not only of unrequited love but of Love full stop with a capital L Washington Post There is no cure for the pain of rejection although researchers are working on it Until then Phillips suggests we honor passion by confining and using it instead of letting it diminish us Chicago Tribune

Selling Transracial Adoption Elizabeth Raleigh, 2018 Chosen Children examines the role of the adoption marketplace in shaping how transracial adoptive families are sorted and matched and analyzes what these practices suggest about race in the United States In contrast to previous work on race and adoption markets that focus on the experiences of adoptive parents Raleigh s project focuses on adoption workers social workers attorneys and counselors Taking a market approach that treats adoptive parents as consumers and children as commodities Raleigh brings together interviews with adoption practitioners participant observation at adoption information sessions and adoption statistics in order to demonstrate how the downturn in supply of adoptable honorary white children which she defines as Asian and hispanic children led to the increased popularity of the transracial adoption of foreign born and biracial black children

New Laws of Robotics Frank Pasquale, 2020-10-27 AI is poised to disrupt our work and our lives We can harness these technologies rather than fall captive to them but only through wise regulation Too many CEOs tell a simple story about the future of work if a machine can do what you do your job will be automated They envision everyone from doctors to soldiers rendered superfluous by ever more powerful AI They offer stark alternatives make robots or be replaced by them Another story is possible In virtually every walk of life robotic systems can make labor more valuable not less Frank Pasquale tells the story of nurses teachers designers and others who partner with technologists rather than meekly serving as data sources for their computerized replacements This cooperation reveals the kind of technological advance that could bring us all better health care education and more while maintaining meaningful work These partnerships also show how law and regulation can promote prosperity for all rather than a zero sum race of humans against machines How far should AI be entrusted to assume tasks once performed by humans What is gained and lost when it does What is the optimal mix of robotic and human interaction New Laws of Robotics makes the case that policymakers must not allow corporations or engineers to answer these questions alone The kind of automation we get and who it benefits will depend on myriad small decisions about how to develop AI Pasquale proposes ways to democratize that decision making rather than centralize it in unaccountable firms Sober yet optimistic New Laws of Robotics offers an inspiring vision of technological progress in which human capacities and expertise are the irreplaceable center of an inclusive economy

A National Strategy to Reduce Crime United States. National Advisory Commission on Criminal Justice Standards and Goals,1973 This report of the National Advisory Commission on Criminal Justice Standards and Goals presents national criminal justice standards and goals for crime reduction and prevention at the State and local levels The Commission proposes as a goal for America a 50 percent reduction in high fear crimes by 1983 It further proposes that crime reduction efforts focus on five crimes homicide reduced by at least 25 percent by 1983 forcible rape reduced by at least 25 percent by 1983 aggravated assault reduced by at least 25 percent by 1983 robbery reduced by at least 50 percent by 1983 and burglary reduced by at least 50 percent by 1983 The Commission proposes four areas for priority action in reducing the five target crimes juvenile delinquency delivery of social services prompt determination of guilt or innocence and citizen action There are seven areas where the Commission proposes recommendations In the area of criminal justice it proposes broad reforms and improvements at the State and local levels In focusing on community crime prevention the Commission emphasizes communitywide crime prevention efforts at the State and local levels The Commission also proposes that the delivery of police services be greatly improved at the municipal level and that the courts undergo a major restructuring and streamlining of procedures and practices in the processing of criminal cases at the State and local levels Other proposals are in the broad areas of corrections and criminal code reform and revision Regarding handguns in American society the Commission proposes nationwide action at the State level to eliminate the dangers posed by widespread possession of handguns
